

Dustin Gledhill, bio

---

Dustin is an International prize-winning pianist, composer, songwriter, producer, teacher, director, writer and actor.

As a child prodigy and young adult pianist, he garnered over twenty first-prize awards in international completion.

As composer / performer, he has collaborated with modern dance companies and choreographers such as Pina Bausch, Russell Maliphant, Parisa Khobdeh, Maya Taylor and Brad Landers.

Dustin collaborated with writer and director Nathan Wright, composing electronic-Classical inspired music for a collage-theater piece, “Manifesto,” featuring the life of Serge Diaghilev.

www.thediaghilevproject.com

Dustin has been commissioned to compose for podcasts such as Autism Speaks and other commercial work. In 2016, Dustin, along with singer-songwriter and sister-in-law Mindy Gledhill, formed synth-pop duo, Hive Riot, releasing an award-winning album, music videos and additional singles. Hive Riot: YouTube Link

Dustin is director of the Gledhill Arts Collective - a group of private teaching studios In NYC, complemented by collaborative professional events and workshops. www.GledhillArtsCollective.com.

As a board member and secretary for The Bohemians: New York Musicians’ Club, Dustin fully produced their virtual concert series in 2021 for their 115th season. www.the-bohemians.org

Current and future projects include recording and performing the complete piano music of Gabriel Fauré from 2020-2024, commemorating one hundred years since his death. www.DustinGledhill.com

A once upon a time native of Provo, UT., Dustin is a graduate of The Juilliard School, Royal Academy of Music and Manhattan School of Music and a Doctoral candidate at Stony Brook University in New York. Dustin currently lives in Bronx, NY

A: 224 East 135th St, #2303-N, Bronx, NY 10451

E: info@gledhillartscollective.com

P: 917-338-2611